The 1969 LeMarquis

LaFayette High School
LaFayette, Alabama

Because you have touched the lives of so many of LaFayette High;

Because you have interest and genuine concern for the students;

Because your students say of you . . .
"He's always for the students".
"He's great"!

Because "a teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops" . . .

Because you have given us so much love and respect, we hope we hope we can express our feelings for you as we dedicate the 1969 LeMarquis to you . . .

. . . Mr. V. A. Turnham

It's All in How You Look at It.

Bell's rung!

The Faculty...

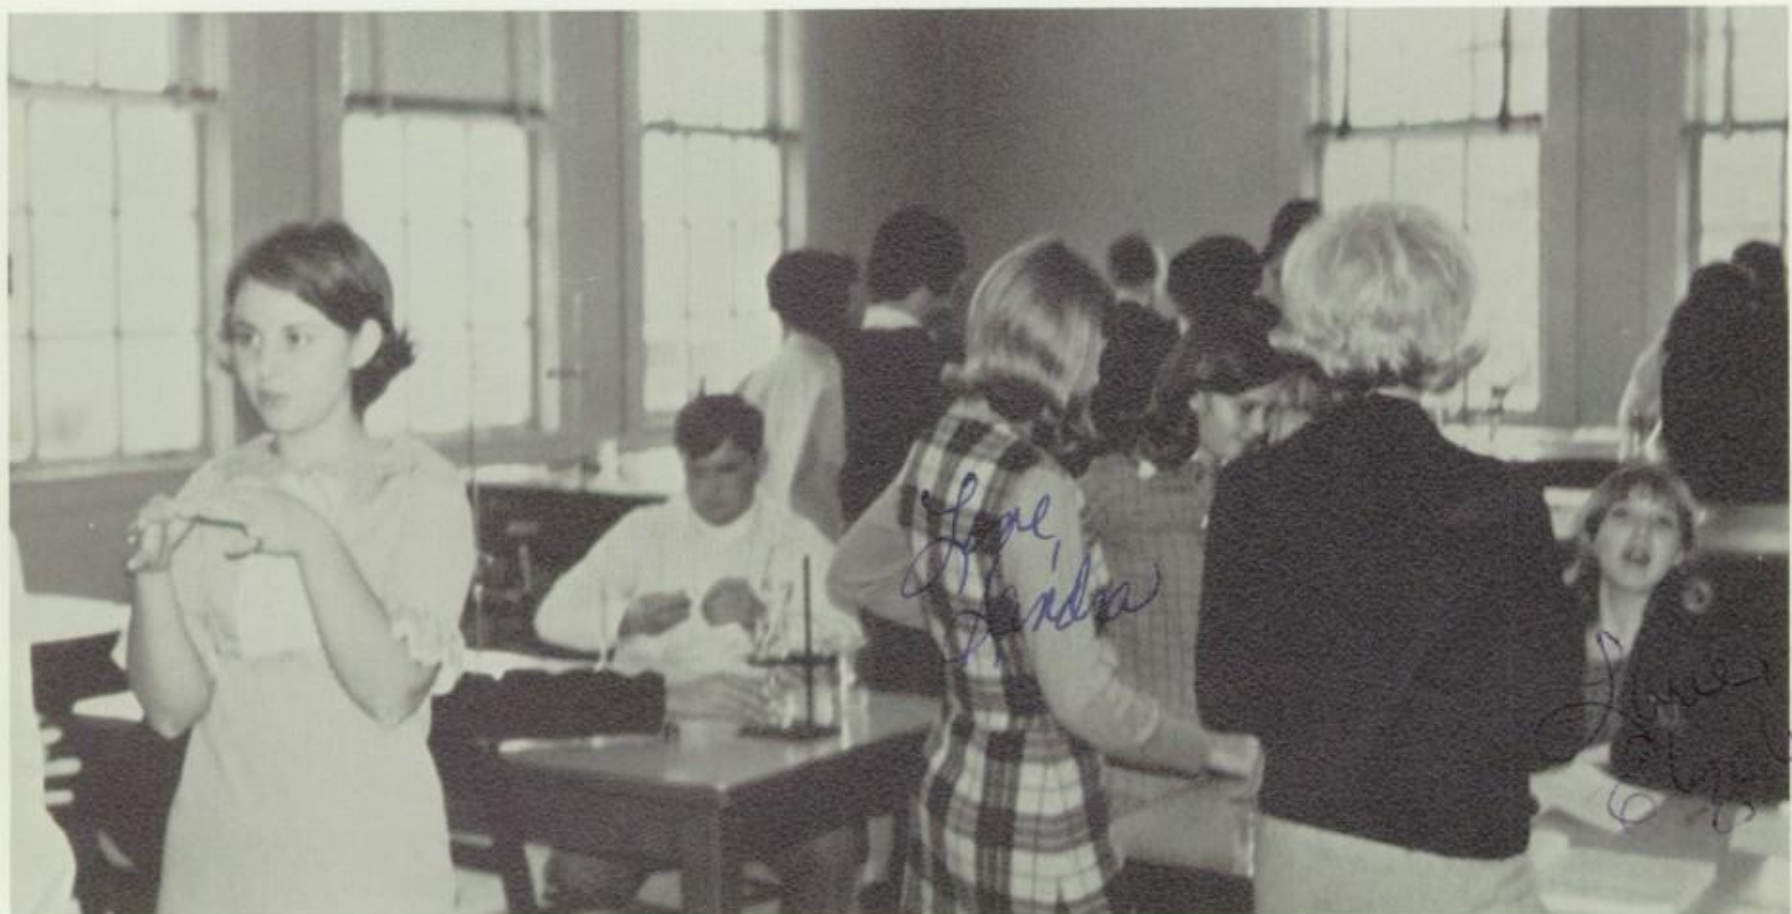

When a teacher looks over a classroom, she sees the world leaders of tomorrow—the homemakers of the future. Among them, one sees the honor students, the average students, and the troublemakers. Each student has a certain potential, yet some never reach it. It is her duty to strive to enlighten each and every student. She knows how important it is to get a good foundation for college. But how do you teach those who don't want to learn? Here is the teacher's viewpoint.

Hall duty

You wouldn't believe what I did!

But he's so squirmy, Mrs. Hill!

There are many such tense moments such as the ones before class beauties are announced.

Cheerleaders entertain us at Homecoming.

Students support the team at every game.

Just plain "fooling around"

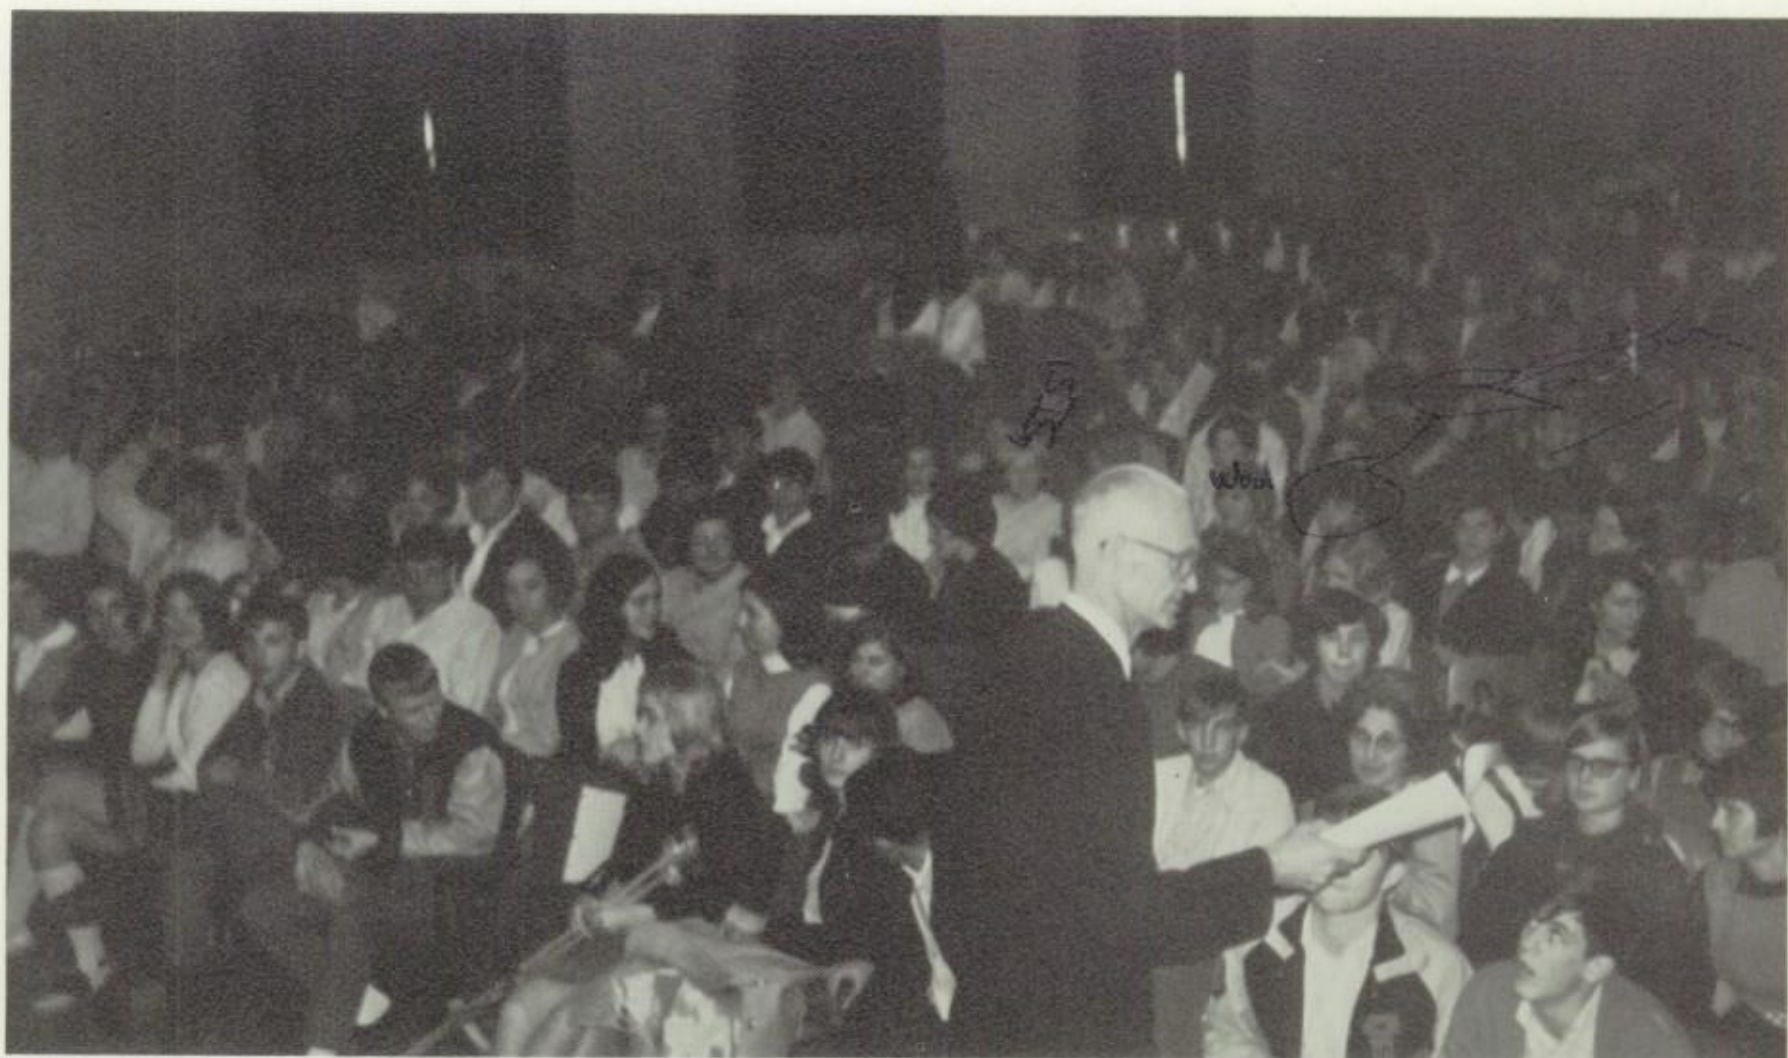

When we look around us at school, we see friends who smile at us and say, "Hi, how are you?" We see young men and women whom we have known all of our lives and with whom we must compete for honors. Our school days are filled with books, ball-games, club meetings, and just plain "fooling around". We strive to be accepted—to belong. Our point of view is entirely different from that of our parents and teachers.

We See Ourselves

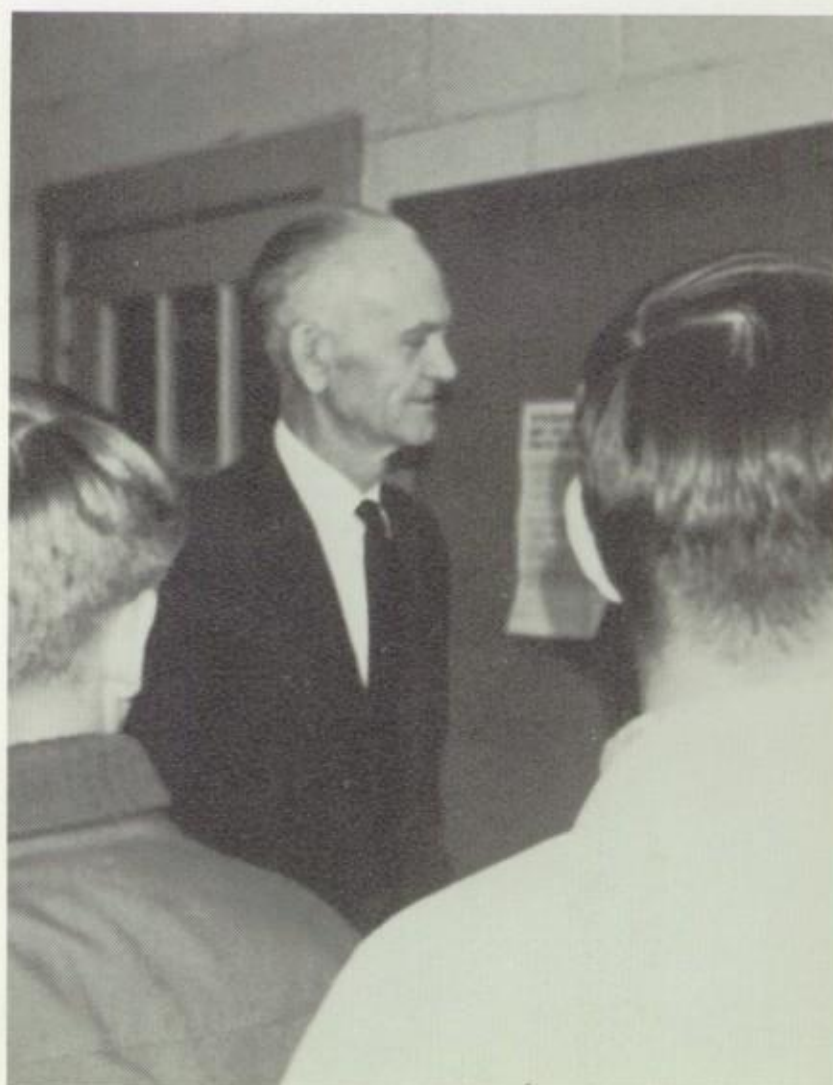

Over lunch many topics are discussed.

Mr. Johnston Sees

Mr. Johnston is our tower of strength. He's the one who must call us down when we become too rowdy, and chew us out when we do wrong. He makes the decisions which run our school smoothly.

There are few students who ever take the time to stop by and talk to Mr. Johnston unless they are told to. If more did, they would find a kind, cooperative, jovial man who really likes young people and who is really interested in them. Mr. Johnston has a great responsibility.

Mr. Johnston at a rare moment.

ACADEMICS

Science Department

LaFayette High School is very proud of its new Physics and Chemistry Laboratory. Anyone who has ever used the old biology lab knows what a great improvement the new lab is. Physics and chemistry students now have the opportunity to perform laboratory experiments much like they will when they are in college.

Each year the school holds a Science Fair. Every student who is taking a science course is required to have a project. Winners of the local fair are entered in the science fair held in Shawmut. LaFayette has had a fine showing in years past.

Math Department

Several students have chalked up unusual math honors which speak highly of LaFayette High School's math department. Last year was a first when the math department was invited to participate in the annual Invitational Mathematics Tournament at Samford University. The students made an excellent showing by placing in the top 34% of the students tested.

Mr. Phillips has entered a team and alternates again this year. With the experience gained from last year's participation, he hopes LaFayette's students will make an even better showing.

English Department

The seniors enjoyed their trip to Columbus, Georgia, this fall to see the Springer Opera Company's production of "My Fair Lady". First the students were given the play, "Pygmalion" to read; so each student knew the main plot of the play before attending. For many of the students, this was the first time they had attended a play. Everyone enjoyed the production, and pleasure was combined with learning.

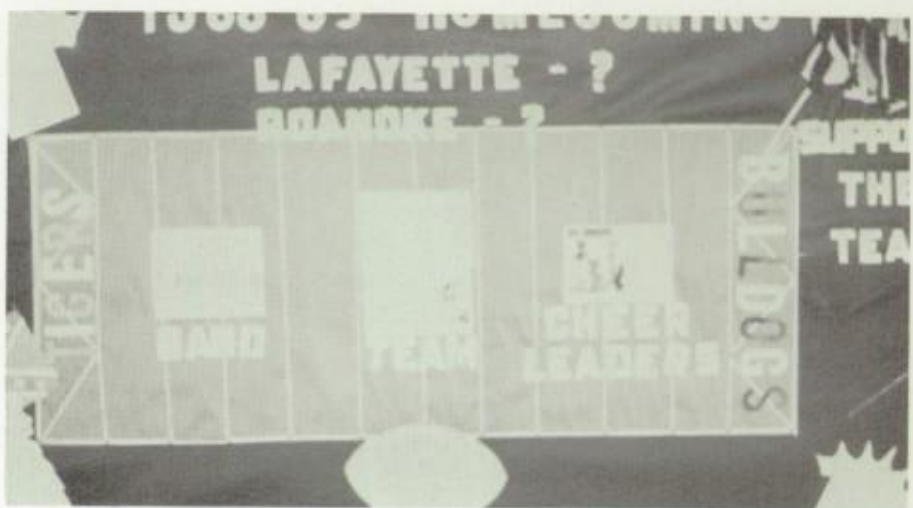

Music Department

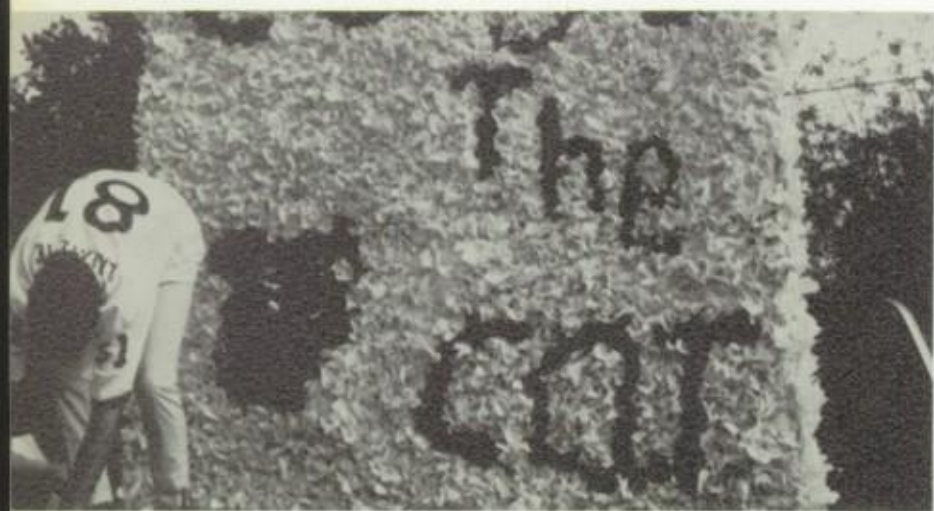

Mr. Joel Williams, band director, has organized a jazz band from members of the high school band. Julie Griswold sometimes vocalizes with the group. The band gave an excellent concert before the student body at assembly one Friday morning. The band consists of five trumpets, five saxophones, five trombones, two guitars, and organ, drums and a bass.

Two students went to All-State Band and All-State Chorus.

First Girl Elected President

For the first time since its establishment at LaFayette High School, the Beta Club elected a girl president, Dolores Crosson. The Beta Club is a service organization made up of students who have maintained a 90 average throughout their high school years and who have exhibited high standards of leadership and conduct.

The officer for 1968-69 are: President, Dolores Crosson; Vice-President, Patsy Nichols; Corresponding Secretary, Rita Carson; Recording Secretary, Betty High; Treasurer, Jeanetta Jones; Parliamentarian, David Noel; Chaplain, Peggy Welch; Reporter, Dianne Williams.

Advisor, Mrs. Hines; Dolores Crosson, President; Patsy Nichols, Good Citizenship Girl.

FHA Proud of State Officers

Our local FHA chapter is known statewide for the number of state offices held by its members. Cynthia Ford was the first State Secretary-Treasurer, and she held the office of Reporter the following year. LaFayette has held the office of Vice-President for three years; Judy Holly, Carolyn Stewart, and Bootsie Fuller were elected to this high office. Louise Chambers became Historian. In 1967 Bronwyn Hand held the office of State Reporter; Patsy Nichols followed her as State Secretary-Treasurer in 1968.

FHA is an integral part of the Home Economics program providing an opportunity for individuals to improve intellectually, morally, and spiritually. Every Future Homemaker is reminded that the contributions to home life today will influence the kinds of homes America will have tomorrow.

Officers for 1968-69: President, Patsy Nichols; Vice-President, Betty High; Secretary, Debbie Green; Treasurer, Betty Chambers; Devotional Leader, Virginia Edge; Recreational Leader, Martha Gregory; Historian, Beverly Brown; Parliamentarian, Carol Reynolds; Reporter, Kathy Graves; Degree Consultant, Peggy Rollins. County President, Rita Carson.

Patsy Nichols, President; Mrs. Sara Edge, Advisor; Rita Carson, Chambers County President.

Betty High Elected Sweetheart

Betty High was elected Key Club Sweetheart at the October meeting. Betty is a senior at LaFayette High.

The Key Club is an organization for the key boys in the high school. The members strive for a better school; they are chosen on the basis of leadership, character, integrity, and scholarship. They strive to serve the faculty, the students, and the community.

This organization whose advisor is Mr. V. A. Turnham is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, and each week two members of the Key Club attend the Kiwanis Club meeting.

Officers are: President, Bill Fuller; Vice-President, John Williams; Secretary, David Noel; Treasurer, Bill White; Parliamentarian, Buddy Pittman; Reporter, Kenneth Sims; Chaplain, Sandy Martin; Club Sweetheart, Betty High. Advisor—Mr. Turnham.

President, Bill Fuller; Advisor, Mr. Turnham, and Sweetheart, Betty High.

FFA Wins Various Honors

John Williams, Mr. Brown, and Judy Adcox.

Several teams from the local FFA chapter have taken honors at country, district, and state land judging and dairy judging contests.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of farm boys enrolled in vocational and agricultural classes. FFA was established in 1926 for the purpose of helping farm boys in Virginia, and it has spread over 49 states and Puerto Rico. Members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting, to speak in public, to solve their problems, and to finance themselves. The club's objectives are to learn leadership, character development, thrift, recreation, cooperation, scholarship, service, and patriotism.

Officers for 1968-69: President, John Williams; Vice-President, Randall Williams; Secretary, Joe Lindsay; Treasurer, Mike Cook; Reporter, Sandy Martin; Sentinel, Hoyt Still. Advisor—Mr. Leonard Brown.

Boys' 4-H Club Reorganizes

Mrs. Cox, sponsor.

The 4-H Club is composed of boys who are interested in learning proper farming methods and the raising of livestock and poultry.

"Head, Hands, Heart, and Health" are put to the various projects of the club, which is making our country a better place in which to live.

Learning to cook, sew, and manage a home is vitally important to the girls in the 4-H Club. Much emphasis is placed on constructive citizenship, leadership, and ability to co-operate and on rendering services. The motto of the 4-H Club is "Make the best better."

Mrs. Cox also sponsors Girls' 4-H

LaFayette High School Band

Band Director — Joel Williams

Drum Majorette — Kathy Leverett

Dear Mr. Williams,

On behalf of the senior band members, I would like to thank you for all you have done for each of us during our high school years. We sincerely appreciate your time, interest, encouragement, and guidance. You combined work and play so well that we learned yet we had fun at the same time. You have meant more to us than just our band director—you have been a FRIEND. We will never forget you and what you have done for us. We only hope that we, in some small way, have contributed something to our band. Like all seniors before us, we like to think that no one can fill our places when we are gone. But deep down inside, we know that our places can and will be filled. So we leave, hoping that we will not be easily forgotten in the coming years. Good luck with next year's band, Mr. Williams. Make each member as proud of the band as we seniors are. Maybe you can manage somehow without us!

Affectionately yours,

Betty High

ATHLETICS

"We're The Mighty Bulldogs"

The Bulldogs guided by Coaches Henry Nettles and Billy Barker closed their 1968 season with a 0-10 record. The Bulldogs continually put up a gallant effort during the season but just couldn't seem to come through in the crucial moments. Despite the Bulldogs' determined efforts, they just could not seem to escape "the bitter years." The Bulldogs did, however, develop one of the best extra point blocking teams in this area.

Alma Mater

Hail, to you, our Alma Mater, we would bring our praise,

You, who showed us wisdom's beauty, guided all our ways.

May we ever bring you glory, laud you to the sky,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, Hail LaFayette High!
Here we saw our lofty vision, dreamed of days to be,
Mingled loss with greater victory, pledged our loyalty.

May we keep our trust forever, never let us fail,
LaFayette, the school we love so dearly, Alma Mater
Hail!

L-Club Reorganizes

This year the Varsity football players and cheerleaders reorganized an active club for the purpose of promoting better organization and leadership among the athletes.

All members must have earned at least one varsity letter in the varsity sports of football, managing, or cheerleading. New members are initiated at the end of each football season. For this reason, recently-lettered members are allowed to become members. Sponsor-Coach Henry Nettles.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Head Cheerleader, Betsy Allen.

Clad in black and gold, the 1968-1969 LaFayette High cheerleaders were a number one factor in the Bulldog gridiron morale. Led by Betsy Allen, head cheerleader, the Bulldogs' roar resounded at every pep meeting, parade, and game. Their great enthusiasm helped to boost the spirit of the spectators and confidence of the team.

A great deal of time and effort goes into being a cheerleader. Afternoon practices begin before the opening of school. Every year several of our cheerleaders represent LHS at a clinic especially for cheering squads. This year at Jacksonville State University, the LHS cheerleaders won third place in the nightly competitions.

The students of LHS have a great deal to be proud of in the seven girls who served as their cheerleaders this past year. The 1969-1970 cheerleaders have a lot to live up to.

FACULTY

Anyone who has ever entered the first door on the left, as you enter the building, will recognize the two familiar faces on this page.

Mr. Johnston has the great responsibility of seeing that every student at LaFayette High School gets the best education possible. His helpfulness and determined attitude toward education has placed an emphasis on every teacher and student. To each student Mr. Johnston has made the road to higher education a little easier, and because of this, we will be eternally grateful.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1969, suffering from nervous and physical exhaustion due mostly to our high school activities, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament:

Item I. To our beloved school, we leave our athletic ability wondering whether any class will ever break our record.

Item II. To our principal Mr. Johnston and the faculty, we leave our rules for "How to Succeed in Running a School Without Really Trying."

Item III. To the Junior Class, we leave our front row seats in assembly.

Item IV. To our underclassmen, we leave the following, with the hope that their days at L.H.S. will be as happy as ours:

I, Fred Phillips, leave my ability to raise———in the library to Al Irvin.

I, Walter Allen, leave with my truck and horse to go to Wetumpka to join my partner.

I, Patsy Nichols, leave my nickname, "KNOW-IT-ALL", to my sister Barbara, who thinks she knows ALMOST as much as I do.

I, Jeanetta Jones, leave hoping that the TIDE will come in better than the 'Dogs went out.

We, Betsy Allen and Jane Ellen Trammell, better known as Fatty and Skinny, do hereby leave our GOOD figures to anyone who thinks they can take the teasing.

I, Dolores Crosson, leave my ability to be the biggest flirt and still go with a boy, to anyone who thinks they can do it and get away with it.

I, Jerry Cotter, leave my ability to———. No, on second thought I'd better take it with me; I might need it.

I, Ralph Preston, better known as Poo, hereby leave my ability to study to Ray Ramage, and do leave here with my girl, Betsy, known as Fatty.

I, Betty High, leave to my brother Christy my ability to get to school on time EVERY single day, to Johnny Lowe, my great love for the band, and to the next year's majorettes my famous words of comfort—"It'll come!"

I, Lucy Noordermeer, leave my ability to laugh at everything to any poor soul who can find as many funny things as I did.

I, Bobby Alsobrook, leave my musical ability to Dennis Gray.

I, Charlotte Barber, being of sound mind and shaky body, leave my crutches to anyone who has knees as shaky as I have.

I, Mike Ramage, being of sound mind and body hereby leave LaFayette High School to return in one year for Kathy.

I, John Weaver, leave my shovel and nickname "Diggar" to anyone who has as much girl trouble as I did.

I, Glenn Marsh, leave my ability to "Get By" in L.H.S. to Randy Hinkle who has a few more years of it.

I, Judy DeLee, leave my ability to irritate Mrs. L. Hines to anyone who can think of as many OTHER things to talk about in Bookkeeping class EXCEPT bookkeeping as I can.

- I, Julia Richardson, leave my ability to never know what is going on in school to Donna Ramage, who's ALWAYS where the action is.
- I, Eulala Ragsdale, leave a warning to all those who take typing II to beware of Mrs. Hines.
- I, Kenneth Sims, leave my trombone to Jimmy Noel, and my ability as a football player to Clyde Sims.
- I, Mike Lovelace, leave my chewing gum and my pictures of Joe Namath of Mrs. McDonald who is crazy about both of them.
- I, Judy Adcox, leave my ability to get into mischief and out of it safely to Debbie Dye who needs help to get out.
- I, Diane Langford, do hereby leave Excedrin headache No. 22 and an economy size bottle of Excedrin to Sharon Harmon, who doesn't know the half of what she's gotten into; my ability to make 107 on a math test to Al Taylor, who will still make C's; and my deepest gratitude to the teachers and the '69 annual staff for their co-operation.
- I, Bill Fuller, leave my philosophy of life to Mr. Phillips.
- I, John Williams, leave anything I left behind to David Noel.
- I, Faye Morgan, leave in hopes that "Ford" has a better idea.
- I, Buddy Pittman, leave my ability to give out in the first quarter to Bill White and my baby blue hip pads to "Big Ray."
- I, Rhonda Cotter, leave so that I may devote ALL my time to Edwin.
- I, William Haynes, happily leave LaFayette High in search of unselfish classmates in college.
- I, Donna Smith, leave my ability to get caught chewing gum in Mrs. McDonald's room and claim not to have any to Regena Bishop, Martha Gregory, and Libby Howard who already have a head start on it.
- I, Johnny Welch, leave LaFayette High School to Ruth Langley.
- I, Ron Hanner, leave my ability to collect assorted conduct cuts and "griping outs" from Mrs. L. Hines to Sidney Mickle.
- I, Lois Christian, leave my ability to do the unnecessary things and not the necessary things to Debra Woody.
- I, Earl Teel, leave my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time to Ray Jones who's already got a real good start.
- I, Fawrist Baker, leave my utter personality to all loquacious consumers, other than the eccentric adolescents.
- I, Mike Cook, leave behind my three brothers to roam the halls of L.H.S.
- I, Don Fetner, leave my tiger uniform to next year's cat!! And my typewriter to Luther Forman.
- I, Rita Carson, leave . . . trying to keep up with "THE" Jones.
- I, Sue Nixon, leave my ability to always take the hardest math courses, even though I have the lowest I.Q. in the class, to anyone as dumb as I am.
- I, Mike Richardson, leave just glad to be going.
- I, Barbara Richardson, leave my love for school to the people on the absentee list.

Class

The first reunion of the 1969 graduates of LaFayette High School was held June 7, 1944, with every one of the former students and some families attending. One of the highlights of the reunion was a scrapbook of interesting facts about the '69 grads that had appeared in papers throughout the nation and world and that had been collected by Dr. Diane Langford, head of the Mathematics Department at Harvard University. Here are some of the clippings.

Washington, D.C., 12/6/92, UPI—President of the United States, Ralph Sinclair Preston, will travel to "the ranch" in Alabama this weekend. He is taking a short golfing vacation to get away from all of the diplomatic problems facing the U. S. today. Accompanying him will be the First Lady, Betsy Bird, and the President's best friend, Secretary of State Bill Fuller. The President will return early Monday morning to resume his duties. His press conference will be covered by CBS News correspondent, Betty High.

Miami, 8/14/73, API—Miss USA, Jeanetta Jones, was crowned Miss Universe—the most beautiful girl in the world—at the climax of a week of competition here in Miami. Jeanetta won the title of Miss Alabama; then, travelled to Atlantic City, where she entered the Miss USA Pageant; and, upon winning that title, proceeded to Miami. Miss Jones is from LaFayette, Alabama, where she works for the local, volunteer fire department heating up their nightly TV dinners.

Columbus, Georgia, 9/25/87, APO—The world-famous band, The Marshans, will appear here for the first time, since their return from England, at the Municipal Auditorium tonight. Band leader, Glenn Marsh, when asked how he liked England, said, "We are all glad to be back in the States; however, those English trains are really out of sight." The performance tonight will include their four gold records and three new songs to be heard for the first time.

Rochester, 12/9/78, UPI—Doctors Faye Morgan Ford and Patsy Nichols just received the announcement that they have been jointly awarded the Nobel Prize in Medicine. Both doctors worked and researched together on the cure for the common cold. Dr. Ford is head of the research department, and Dr. Nichols is the head pharmacist at the Mayo Clinic.

Birmingham, Alabama, 11/21/79, UPI—(This is taken from the daily column of upcoming sports writer, Kenneth Sims). Auburn upset Alabama last night 102-7 in an thrill-packed game. Auburn head coach Buddy Pittman praised the work of his two assistant coaches, William Haynes and Mike Ramage, who have whipped the Tigers into a bowl-game team in the past year. When Coach Pittman, "The Panda", was asked what happened to the Tigers, he replied, "I simply got tired of losing. I had not won a game since my senior year in high school, and I figured I had waited long enough."

Huntsville, Alabama, 9/11/74, API—The first annual race at Donna Smith's Race Track ended today with a new world's record. Jumping Randy, owned by Judy DeLee and ridden by Earl Teel, finished the race in first place after Panther, owned by Nick Lauderdale, fell and broke his leg. This was the first time in history that a horse with a 27-race losing streak beat a horse with a 33-race winning streak.

Mars, 3/8/77, MAR—The first series of articles written by reporter, Eulala Ragsdale, have been received by earth. The article states that the expedition has been a complete success so far. The air supply is holding well; food and water will definitely last. No damage was done in landing. If all goes well, the first lady astronaut will return to earth in six weeks.

Hollywood, 3/11/79, APO—The grand opening of Baker's Stall Shop was held today. This company owned by Faurist Baker operates only in the winter sending out repair trucks to get stalled cars started. The company would naturally go bankrupt; except, it is financed by multimillionairess Diana Ross who was so grateful one morning for his help that she bought a million dollars worth of stock.

Prophecy

Chicago, 7/18/85, APO—Stockbroker Walter Allen announced today that stock in Hanner Incorporated has shot up five points in the past three hours. This goes to show that had the Coca-Cola Company used pastel shades for bottles in the past, there would not be a Royal Crown Cola Company today. Distributors all over the nation are receiving the yellow, pink, blue, and lavender bottles sent out by Ron Hanner and his bottling company.

New York, 9/17/87, UPI—The grand opening of Jane's the boutique with the taller woman in mind, was held this past weekend with model, Lucy No-ordermeer, presenting an outstanding fashion show. Narrator, Dolores Crosson, introduced the owner, Jane Ellen Trammell, who welcomed everyone in the the audience. Society Editors from all the papers were present to report the show to their readers. The shoppers were invited to browse and to ask help from salesgirl, Judy Adcox. Upon departure, each guest was presented a small favor.

Alcatraz, 4/12/86, DDT—A mild prison break attempt occurred, but thanks to two alert prison guards, no one escaped. Jerry Cotter, Fred Phillips, and John Weaver overpowered one guard and made it to the gate before being caught. They had all been sentenced to life at hard labor for hitting Mr. Johnston with a spitball on graduation night.

Eastern Air Lines Flight 907, 7/7/77, PAP—Captain John Williams piloted the first plane which refused to be hijacked to Cuba. Because of his bravery, Mr. Williams was promoted to president of the lines. He will be the only Eastern Air Lines president ever to continue performing the duties of an airlines pilot after becoming head of the lines.

Paris, France, 5/15/85, UPI—With the capture of Johnny "Tiny" Welch today, private detective, Bobby Alsobrooks, ended one of the biggest man searches in history. "Tiny" was seen leaving the Cotter Hotel, owned and operated by Edwin and Rhonda Cotter, with a case of jewels belonging to millionairess Sue Nixon. Miss Nixon made her fortune by inventing a telephone pole that jumps out of the way of cars. The jewels were last seen when she gave them to the house detective, Mike Lovelace, to put into the safe. He was found unconscious later by two other residents of the hotel. Mike and Barbara and Julia Richardson came up in time to see "Tiny" and Ruth rushing away from the scene. Hours later the couple was apprehended.

London, 5/9/82, UPI—Gossip columnist, Rita Carson Jones, reports that near riots broke out when stage and screen star Mike Cook arrived in London for the premiere of his latest movie, "Went With the Breeze", a Twentieth Century COX production. Mr. Cook has been nominated for BEST ACTOR because of his splendid portrayal of Rhett Valet. Mr. Cook started his acting career in high school.

New York, 2/17/75, UPI—Miss Lois Christain will appear in joint concert with Mr. Van Cliburn tonight in Carnegie Hall. Miss Christain is one of Mr. Cliburn's more promising students. Curtain time is eight o'clock.

The number one book on the Best-Seller list is LET ME OUT OF HERE! written by Miss Charlotte Barber and based on an actual incident. Miss Barber portrayed the part of a clam in the senior play at the high school. When the cue came for her to raise the lid of her concrete-and-wood shell, she could not not budge it. The hilarious episodes following this unfortunate prop failure make the book a candidate for the Pulitzer Prize.

The Freshman Class set out with determination to become an active part of LaFayette High School this year. Many members of the class entered clubs and went out for sports.

Beverly Brown, Jo Ellen Hill and Jane Welch were elected junior cheerleaders. They did a wonderful job during the junior team's season, and this experience helped to train them for the years to come. Debbie Dye was elected the 1969 Homecoming Princess. Beverly Brown and Kathy Graved were Elected to officers in local FHA chapter.

The Freshman Class can happily close their first year in senior high school with the knowledge that they have successfully completed their "basic training".

The Seventh Grade would like to thank Mrs. Hines and Mrs. Green for their guidance during the first year that we are in junior high school. We feel that they are two of the best home-room teachers that a student can have.

A hand to aid, a voice to speak,
Knowledge to share, and minds to reach,
These things are used five days a week
By men and women who teach.

They are our teachers, guides and friends,
They challenge our bodies, spirits, and minds.
They want to see us become the women and men
Who will rule the world and help mankind.

It takes a lot to put up with "kids"—
Patience, firmness and love—all a part
Like a card game they put in bids—
The goal—an educated mind and heart.

Why do they teach? The answer must be—
As we grow up, they can say, that's a part of me.

crazy as any body I know
Best of Luck
Judy

Cliff
Best of luck to a real sweet guy!
I hope you'll always receive the best out of life! You're a wonderful friend & I won't ever forget ya!

Lore,
Sandra

Cliff,
Best wishes to a great guy that I think alot of. I have never enjoyed being around you this year and hope it will continue on through next year. I wish you the best of luck
life has to offer cause
you sure deserve it.
Good Luck!
Libby

It was fun being in band with you, 'cause you were a great drummer and we all miss you. Best of luck always.
Have,
"Garn"

Just as much as I love to be a little more of a friend. I'll never forget all the good laughs and we've had. You're really helped me out so many times. Remember the banquet we really had fun.
I hope you're in the same way. Love
May. Had a good day.
Love Always
